

PPDM Training

Best practices at your fingertips.

Why PPDM training? The Professional Petroleum Data Management (PPDM) Association has been creating and improving data management standards and programs for more than 25 years. As a non-profit society, one of our goals is to bring the community together through professional development training, providing critical learning to make your job easier.

Who should take PPDM training? PPDM training is not just for Petroleum Data Managers. Popular classes like “What is a Well” and “Business Life Cycle of the Well” provide insight and shared vocabularies that benefit accountants, marketers, management, and of course, data managers. While many courses have been created to provide organizations using the PPDM Data Model a head start, our courses bring value to any organization.

Training Types

Online

E-Learning

PPDM’s eLearning courses are conveniently sized modules that will keep you engaged. Work through online content at your own pace and benefit from the Concept Checks throughout the course. You will have many “Aha” moments throughout.

Webinar

The PPDM training webinars are video format presentations delivered by Senior PPDM-Certified Instructor Pat Rhynes. With more than 35 years’ experience in multiple areas of E&P data management disciplines, Pat offers valuable insights that will resonate with you. Multiple-module videos and downloadable PowerPoint presentations allow you to set your own pace.

Classroom

Public

Our classroom sessions are designed to be highly interactive and relevant to the needs of the audience. Participants enjoy the in-person interaction, sharing of diverse experiences, networking with their peers and applying their learning in an open environment with the benefits of real-time training and feedback from a PPDM expert instructor.

Private

Private training options provides your organization with an ability to hand select courses to match your needs. Delivered in a traditional face-to-face method by our expert instructor, and we’ll come to you, wherever you are in the world.
